

EXT. GOVARDHANA HILL - DAY

Krishna & Madhu return to tell the others what they did, and share their treats, only to discover Bal, Sridham, Subala and just two other boys dressed as sheep.

KRISHNA

Where have all our other friends gone?

SRIDHAM

accuses Subala of stealing all his "sheep".

SUBALA

But again, Subala protests his innocence.

Then Radha, Lalita and Vishaka lead Chandrika and Prabhavathi to Krishna. But before they can punish Krishna, Chandrika looks around and notices that her son is not there.

PRABHAVATHI doesn't see her boy either.

PRABHAVATHI

Where are they?

CHANDRIKA

And who's that boy over there?

wonders Chandrika, referring to VYOMASURA (in disguise) as he sneaks toward to the two remaining sheep-boys.

KRISHNA sees through the boy's disguise, and when he does,

VYOMASURA sees Krishna in his warrior form. When

confronts the boy

Vyomasura resumes his towering demon form, and

VYOMASURA

reveals he has kidnapped the other boys and will kill them all...as soon as he's killed Krishna!

Hearing that the demon has their sons, Chandrika and Prabhavathi collapse in grief.

KRISHNA battles the demon and, despite his smaller size, wrestles Vyomasura to the ground, causing

GOVARDHANA HILL to shake so much that his brother

BALARAM has to press his foot down on the earth to stabilise it, leaving

A DEEP FOOTPRINT. Finally,

KRISHNA throws the demon down with such force that he dies instantly from the impact. Then

CHANDRIKA AND PRABHAVATHI plead with Krishna to find their sons.

So Krishna leads them away.
